Behavioral Core Protocols and Training

Grip Strength

The animal's forepaws are placed on a wire or rope and the latency to fall is recorded (sec). The mean of 2-3 trials or the best score of 2-3 trials are the most common measures analyzed in this assay [1].

Aging [2, 3], sex, and strain [1, 4] are likely to affect the outcome of this assay.

[1-21]
References
